Army Community Service Happenings

Army Community Service offers many activities for community members. It features training, special seminars, job hunting assistance and much more. Look for some of the ACS activities in the Stuttgart Community Post each week. They are usually featured in the community, education and job sections. Below are just a few of the activities currently offered:

Moms Together: Join ACS for Moms Together (dads are welcome too!). It is an educational support group for parents with young children from birth to 5 years of age. Weekly topics include raising good children, children's growth and development, nurturing your family while taking care of yourself, basic life support, first aid and much more. The group meets Tuesdays from 10 a.m. to noon at the Robinson Barracks Chapel Annex and on Thursdays from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. at the Patch Youth Services. Childcare is provided on site.

Love & Logic Night Out: Attention all Love and Logic parents: let's get together on a regular basis to share our suggestions, successes and frustrations. The first meeting will be a potluck held at Patch ACS on Sept. 15 at 6:30 p.m. To take part, call Gail Kirkpatrick at 07031-287161.

Stepparent Group: Attention stepparents: ACS would like to offer a place for you to meet and form a support group.

Inter-Racial Couple Group: If you are an inter-racial couple interested in meeting others who share your special perspective call ACS.

ACS is located on Patch Barracks in building 2307 on the second floor. Call them for information about these topics or other programs at 0711-680-7176.

SECTION II COMMUNITY INFO

Patch Ski Club Picnic

The Patch Ski Club kicks off the 1998-99 season with a membership picnic Sept. 12 from noon to 4 p.m. on the patio/lawn next to the La Rose restaurant (formerly the Officers' Club) on Patch Barracks. Community members are invited to come see what's on the schedule for club members this season. The club is offering 26 trips for all levels of skiers from beginner to expert and some non-skiing trips such as biking and rafting.

Annual memberships are $30 for singles and $45 for families. Come to the picnic and learn how you can join and qualify (note we didn't say win!) for free ski trips.

Special Night in Stuttgart

On Sept. 4 and 5 the James F. Byrnes Institute will host an open-air movie. Both films will be shown in English and admittance is free. "Good Will Hunting" will show Sept. 4 and "As Good As It Gets" will be shown Sept. 5, with both movies beginning at 9 p.m. In addition on Sept. 4, Pops Wilson, a local jazz band, will perform. On Sept 5 Pumping Special will play 50s and 60s rock and roll, both beginning at 7 p.m. For more information about these and other events call 0711-228-180.

Voices and Brass

The Stuttgart German-American Community Chorus resumes regular Monday rehearsals on Sept. 7 in the Robinson Barracks Chapel Annex. New singers in all voice categories are welcome to join in the preparation for Christmas concerts on Dec. 5 and 6. The program will present works for a mixed chorus and brass ensemble including Rutter's Gloria, Nelson's The Christmas Story and Pinkham's Christmas Cantata. Thomas L. Carter directs it. For more info call Dave at 0711-463463 or Ann at 07146-90125.

National Ski Patrol Day

National Ski Patrol Day is Sept. 12 and club personnel will have info booths set up from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Patch Ski Club picnic and Sports Store, RB Commissary Exchange and Panzer Post Exchange. If you ever wanted to be a ski patroller now is the time to get involved. Join the European Patrol of the Year for 1998. For more info call 07031-15881.

Hispanic Heritage Month Festivities

The 6th Area Support Group will observe Hispanic Heritage month from Sept. 15 through Oct. 15.
